

Since Superbooth18 meant accomodating 55 additional companies, the management booked the west wing of the FEZ as an extra showroom. Which gave us a chance to become familiar with hitherto unknown aspects of the FEZ. Last year, the communistic pomposity astounded us – the huge ...

... Sputnik mosaics on the staircase and the cult cosmonaut room with its statue of Yuri Gagarin.

Surprise, surprise: Reaching those far-of western rooms required passage through the public swimming area. We caught a glance of electronic pilgrims catching a breath under hairdryers ...

The big trend in modules this year has surely been sequencers and alternative controllers. So on to part II of our SUPERBOOTH18 photo safari ...

Eye-catchers: Yamaha's amazing department of antique synthesizers ...

See you all at SUPERBOOTH 2019 ...
