

Perfect weather, a beautiful city, lots of culture, happy people: SUPERBOOTH16. The synth expo was a great success. Andreas Schneider (Schneider's Laden) and his team organized a perfect event. SUPERBOOTH16 has exceeded our expectations ...

There were billions of modular-synth exhibitors. And there were the BIG PLAYERS in synth industry, too: Roland, Yamaha, Korg, Moog, Oberheim, DSI and many more ...

A quick tour through SUPERBOOTH16 ...

Jörg Sunderkötter (www.keyboards.de) and Dieter Doepfer (www.doepfer.de)

Tobias Muenzer (Tubbutec.de) developed fantastic MIDI interfaces for Roland SH-101, Juno-6/60, Korg Polysix and Mono/Poly. Some of his products use StereoPing controllers, some don't. Wanna have UNISON Mode in your Juno-60? Ask Tobias ...

Ah yes, Tubbutec just released a general MIDI interface for old (very old) drum machines. Now it's possible to synchronize goodies like Roland TR-55, Korg Minipops-120 and many others ...

Unmistakable: synth pioneer Ken MacBeth (www.macbethstudiosystems.com) ...

Modular elegance: Endorphin.es (<http://endorphin.es>) ...

The most beautiful analog sequencer ever? Komplex Sequencer by Koma Elektronik (<http://koma-elektronik.com>) ...

Dave Rossum is back (www.rossum-electro.com). His modules remind us of the glorious EMU Modular System ...

Who is Smegg???

Continue with part 2 of our SUPERBOOTH16 report ...